

From: Nat Budin
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/23/02 10:44am
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

I think Microsoft's proposed settlement is a very bad idea; it would only serve to increase Microsoft's monopoly at virtually no cost to them (since the proposed settlement's figured value includes retail license costs of Microsoft software, which in actuality costs them next to nothing). Please do not allow Microsoft to get away with this!

Thanks for listening,
Nat Budin
natb@brandeis.edu